

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

John Bohls LLC

NOV 2014 - RIGHT NOW

Graphic Design / Website Design & Development / Digital Consultant

After many years working for design and advertising agencies I decided I'd rather be an independent contractor. I work with business owners and creative agencies to design and develop websites, brand identities and other communications.

CLIENTS: Razorfish, Coates Kokes, Ammonista, Portland Chiropractic, Sincerely Truman, and Friends of the Children.

Grady Britton

APRIL 2012 - OCT 2014

Senior Digital Designer

I helped define a new process of making websites at Grady Britton using HTML wireframes, Style Tiles and Responsive Web Design principles. I worked closely with the creative director, account executives, clients and developers to make sure sites were produced on time and budget. I designed websites, brand identities, advertising campaigns, collateral materials, email templates and food packaging.

CLIENTS: Choicelunch, Willamette Week, Climax Portable Machining, ENTEK Manufacturing, Travel Portland, Port of Vancouver USA and Portland Advertising Federation.

tenfour

OCT 2011 - APRIL 2012

Senior Interactive Designer

At tenfour I designed a social media contest/promo website, a mobile micro site, interactive training web-based modules, Facebook pages, and a responsive web application. I also had the opportunity to design game applications for a new open source operating system. I performed the roles of Web Designer, UI Designer and Web Developer.

CLIENTS: Intel, Toshiba, Planar, Bank of Hawaii, and Waggener Edstrom.

Sandstrom Partners

FEB 1997 - SEPT 2002

NOV 2006 - SEPT 2011

Senior Web Designer / Interactive Designer / Junior Designer

I was hired as a Junior Designer in 1997. I created original designs and production graphics for a wide range of projects including identity systems, packaging, environmental retail graphics, trade show graphics, posters, and advertising.

In the year 2000 I was promoted to the position of Interactive Designer. I designed and developed many Flash based websites. In 2002, I left to become an independent freelancer. However, I continued to design and develop websites for Sandstrom on a contract basis. I returned to Sandstrom Partners in 2006 as a Senior Web Designer. I worked with three separate Creative Director led teams within Sandstrom. I performed the roles of Information Architect, Interface Designer, Web Designer and assisted with project management and web development responsibilities. I also managed the services of freelance web producers and developers.

CLIENTS: St-Germain, Nike, Smith Teamaker, Lensbaby, Webtrends, Kombucha Wonder Drink, and Cycle Oregon.

Freelance Designer

SEPT 2002 - NOV 2006

Web Design / Flash Development / Graphic Design

While freelancing I worked with a variety of clients. I provided services that included web design and development, identity and packaging design, illustration and advertising.

CLIENTS: Sandstrom Partners, Publicis Seattle, KEXP, Converse, R West, Monkeybar Buddies, and XNR Productions.

Satterwhite Design

AUG 1996 - JAN 1997

Multimedia Designer / Graphic Designer

When I first moved to Portland, I was hired as a designer at Satterwhite Design Inc. My responsibilities included design and development of CD-ROM based presentations, creating identity systems, and designing newspaper ads.

CLIENTS: Piquant Software, Portland State University, and Tektronix.

EDUCATION

Texas State University

1992 - 1996

Bachelor of Fine Arts Degree in Commercial Arts - Summa Cum Laude

SKILLS

As a design professional I use a variety of computer software to create my designs. The primary applications I use are Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop, Adobe InDesign, Adobe Acrobat, Adobe Dreamweaver, Apple Keynote, and Apple Pages. I am also proficient in web development utilizing these programming languages: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, PHP, GIT, and ActionScript.
